Dear rural Larimer County, Bellvue, Berthoud, Drake, Estes Park, Fort Collins, Glen Haven, Johnstown, Kinikini, Laporte, Livermore, Loveland, Masonville, Pinewood Springs, Red Feather Lakes, Timnath, Virginia Dale & Wellington neighbors,

Because our ballot this year is the longest in recent memory, I hope you find the enclosed comprehensive 2018 SAMPLE BALLOT useful. Please accept a warm and sincere thank you for reviewing and/or for sharing it with your family and neighbors.

As a third generation Coloradoan — as a foster mom with an undergraduate degree in economics from Fort Lewis College, in Durango, and an MBA from Georgetown University — as a former director of a healthcare non-profit, founder of a child-welfare organization, and a public education consultant, I respectfully ask for your vote.

Regardless of your party affiliation — Independent, Democrat, Republican, Libertarian, or Green Party — I welcome you. I welcome your insights, your perspective, and your candid feedback to all that is on my website. I also invite you to join my campaign to represent the people of this community, while steadfastly working to bridge the bitterly partisan political divide.

In that context, I welcome any opportunity to grab a cup of coffee or take a leisurely walk through the community with you. Please call my personal cell phone or email me any time. Again, I respectfully ask for your vote.

Most sincerely,

Rebecca Cranston

Candidate, Senate District 15
